Westacre is a popular and oversubscribed school with a strong and embedded primary ethos. An exciting opportunity has arisen, and we are looking to recruit a Teaching Assistant to work alongside our existing Behaviour & Pastoral Leader in school. The successful candidate will work as part of a team and show a strong commitment to children's social and emotional needs by delivering bespoke interventions within a pastoral and wellbeing programme as well as supporting learning in the classroom. The hours of work are 8.15 am – 4.00 pm Monday to Friday and will include break and lunchtime support for individual or groups of children.

The successful candidate will be required to:

- Work with children on a one-to-one basis or in small or large groups and act as a listener, facilitator for learning, motivator and role model
- Support vulnerable and challenging children on a 1-1 or small group basis as part of class provision
- Work alongside teachers to support classroom learning
- Prepare and deliver bespoke intervention programmes to support a child's wellbeing
- Promote, energy and passion about young children and their families.
- Display interpersonal skills and warmth to build strong and supportive relationships with our children, families, team and community.
- Share his/her own learning and inspire learning in others
- Be a flexible and excellent team player.

What we offer:

- An excellent opportunity to develop your practice with a commitment to your continued professional development
- A highly skilled and supportive pastoral team
- An excellent working environment in a well-resourced school set in extensive grounds
- Local government pension scheme
- Local authority discount schemes

Westacre is a friendly and welcoming school, and we look forward to hearing from you. For further information about our school, then please do look at our website. <https://www.westacre-middle-school.co.uk>
